

The Catcher in the Rye

Reading Check

Chapter 1-2

- Who is the narrator?
 - Holden Cawling
 - Holden Caulfield
 - Horace Caulfield
 - Henry Connors
- What is the Point Of View of our story?
 - First-person
 - Second-person
 - Third-person
- In terms of setting, cite the places (circle all correct letters/answers – leave incorrect blank) where the action takes place in chapters one and two. You must correctly answer for credit.
 - A psychiatric facility/rest home
 - Hollywood, CA
 - Agerstown, Pennsylvania
 - New York, NY
 - Pencey Prep School
- What action occurs (circle all correct letters/answers – leave incorrect blank) in the first two chapters of our story? You must correctly answer for credit.
 - He writes his story from a rest home where he has been sent for therapy.
 - He begins to tell the story of his breakdown, beginning with his departure from Pencey Prep.
 - He discusses his first days at Pencey.
 - He has been forbidden to return to the school after the fall term.
 - He is watching a football game and walks away to go say goodbye to Mr. Spencer.
 - Mrs. Spencer makes him a cup of hot chocolate.
 - Spencer tries to convince Holden to think about his future.
- Who is D. B.?
 - A friend
 - His cousin
 - A former teacher
 - His brother
- As discussed in class, how might you best characterize the protagonist?
 - Evil
 - Daring
 - Hypocritical
 - Focused
- The episode with the ducks is an illustration of what character trait in our protagonist?
 - Composed
 - Inattentive
 - Sad
 - Creative