

English IV

Final Exam Review

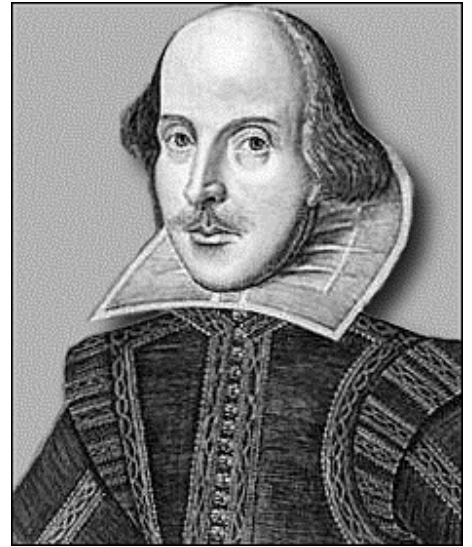

Use your notes, returned tests/quizzes, textbook and web site resources to study the following topics:

- The Elements of Literature
 - Be able to define and intelligently determine examples of each of the following concepts
 - Plot
 - Characterization
 - Point of View
 - Conflict/types
 - Foreshadowing
 - Irony
 - Tone
 - Mood
 - Symbolism
 - Theme
 - Imagery
 - Figurative Language, specifically metaphor and simile
 - Symbolism

- The Five-Paragraph Essay
 - Be able to develop, outline and write, adhering to the rules we discussed and applied this semester

- Beowulf
 - Pre-Reading Topics (pay close attention when reviewing)
 - Plot
 - Theme
 - Symbolism
 - Characterization
 - Be able to identify alliteration
 - Connections to today and modern epics

- Haiku
 - Be able to identify and define the components of the classic haiku
 - Be able to explain why it's considered poetry
 - Be able to write a haiku on a given topic

This will be a closed-note/resource exam, as you will find next year in college. I cannot more strongly urge you to review independently and together in preparation for this cumulative exam, worth 20% of your semester grade.